Ford recently launched a Mustang 50 Year Limited Edition coupe that will have a production run of 1,964 units as a tribute to the iconic muscle car's birth year. That, however, doesn't include the one-off Ford Mustang 50 Year Limited Edition convertible that will soon enter a raffle, with all proceeds from ticket sales to be donated to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. The tickets cost $20 apiece and can be purchased at www.ford4ms.com or by calling 1-800-243-5767. Canadians can participate, as well.

This unique Ford Mustang 50 Year Limited Edition convertible will wear a badge on the instrument panel, engraved with the signature of Ford chairman Bill Ford and the serial number 0001 of 0001. It will also feature a 420-horsepower V8, Brembo brakes, 19" wheels, and Pirelli P Zero tires. The winner will be announced on August 16th at the 2014 Woodward Dream Cruise. He or she will have the choice between a manual or automatic transmission.
